

Prompt Approval For FUMT, Draft Urged by Baruch

WASHINGTON, March 29 (UP)—Bernard M. Baruch today urged prompt enactment of universal military training and selective service legislation as a means of achieving "the stability in the world which lasting peace requires."

The financial and presidential adviser also called for an "economic mobilization plan," and said America's failure to muster all its resources now for peace would leave "no alternative but to mobilize for war" in the future.

Testifying before the senate armed services committee, Baruch suggested the appointment of someone to "watch the impact upon our economy of the partial mobilization we are entering upon and to maintain a constant inventory, balancing all our growing commitments against our resources."

Before Baruch spoke, Chairman Curney, R. D., declared that armed services committee must conclude hearings on the military phase of President Truman's Russia program by the end of the week.

"We simply can't take any more time," Curney said. "By this weekend, we will have the complete story of the committee's findings. It is our duty to report to the people by the end of the week."

Gurney's committee is considering (1) temporary revival of the wartime draft, (2) a permanent program of universal military training, and (3) immediate expansion of the peacetime strength of the armed forces at a cost of $3,400,000,000.

Baruch told the committee: "The terrible air and destructive potentialities of modern instrumentalities of war, it is no longer good enough to punish an aggressor after he has begun a war, preventing war requires buttressing our national security by preventive measures."

He said that "in whatever we undertake, we must be guided by the necessity of not working ourselves out of the world which we all attempt."

Baruch said the greatest danger to the world today is for America to make up its mind where it stands, and that the choice is between "either we come to a decision to 'go it alone' or we come to a decision to 'go it with the world'."

"Knowing where we stand, I believe, would make possible a decision to go it alone or to go it with the world."

Baruch said the committee is considering (1) temporary revival of the wartime draft, (2) a permanent program of universal military training, and (3) immediate expansion of the peacetime strength of the armed forces at a cost of $3,400,000,000.

'Stop-Truman' Bid May Gain N. Y. Liberals

WASHINGTON, March 29 (UP)—The stop-Truman movement probably will get a powerful new recruit tonight in New York, and the Ike-for-President boom may get another boost.

The policy committee of the New York state liberal party has announced that it will endorse Dwight D. Eisenhower for president.

The committee said that it believes Eisenhower is the best man for the job, and that it is time for the assembly to endorse him.

Federal Court Order Is Brought to 'Force' To Appear Before Panel

WASHINGTON, March 29 (UP)—President Truman's fact finding board today called for a federal court order to force John L. Lewis to testify about the strike of his soft coal miners. The board authorized the justice department to ask for a court order after Lewis had scorned a subpoena issued by the board itself. It had directed him to appear at 2 p. m.

The board went ahead at that hour with its hearings on the testimony of Lewis.

Russians Stepping up Scandinavia Pressure

LONDON, March 29 (UP)—Renewed Russian pressure was directed today against Scandinavia, Iran and Italy, with Sweden accused of preparing to offer bomber bases to the U. S. in case of war.

Dispatches from Moscow, meanwhile, indicated that negotiations for a treaty with Finland were drawing to a close. One report, carried by the British radio, said treaty talks had been concluded.

The attack against Sweden was carried in the Soviet army newspaper Red Star and broadcast by radio Moscow. It said that "war psychosis" was being created in Sweden "just as in the United States."

According to Red Star, Sweden was obtaining large numbers of American military planes in Britain and the U. S. Sweden was not receiving heavy bombers, Red Star said, because "in return of war they will offer their air bases to American heavy bombers."

General Charged
The article charged Lieut.-Gen. Helge Jung, commander in chief of the Swedish armed forces, with stirring up a war psychosis as a basis for demands for large military appropriations.

There was no foundation for the charges, Red Star said, "until so far as to refer to possible threats from certain 'dangerous sources' from the east."

The article said Sweden was planning to join the western European bloc, and was accepting standardization of arms under U. S. auspices.

Another Russian charge quoted an article in the Communist party newspaper "Pravda," which charged that the Swedish government was intervening in the Italian election as though Italy were one of the "big powers."

Pravda accused the United States of supplying the government of Sweden with arms, and of "preparing direct intervention" in Italy.

CHARGES DENIED
STOCKHOLM, March 29 (UP)—Deputy Minister Allan Vagstad said today that the Russian charges against Sweden were "purely propaganda."

U. S. Decides Not to Press Palestine Bid

LAKE SUCCESS, March 29 (UP)—The United States has decided not to press for immediate action on a resolution to establish a Jewish-Arab truce and to call a special Palestine session of the United Nations assembly.

The spokesman said chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin had been instructed by Washington to concentrate on efforts to get a Jewish-Arab truce and to call a special Palestine session of the United Nations assembly.

Austin was reported ready to submit two resolutions to the security council, one to establish a truce and one to call a special Palestine session of the United Nations assembly.

The American spokesman said no decision had been taken on the truce resolution, and that the assembly would be brought up. Some quarters believed the U. S. might wait and see the results of the assembly before making a decision.

The new truce proposal was designed to carry out President Truman's declaration of last Thursday. In view of earlier big power failures to get such a truce, however, there was little hope here that any concrete results could be expected.

Introduction of the American proposal was expected to be the signal for a bitter Soviet blast against the United States.

Dealers Told To Pay Plant License Fees

Persons dealing in flowers, plants or shrubbery must obtain a nursery, florist or dealer's license, warns the state department of agriculture bureau of plant industry.

Word of the warning was received here by G. E. Hogan, district inspector. Hogan said license fees had been set for nurserymen, florists, dealers, importers, landscape gardeners or any firm, person or corporation handling plant life. License fees are set for two different classifications of dealers.

One class include persons, firms and corporations doing a gross business of more than $200 per year. This license fee is $15 unless the dealer handles fruiting stock, in which case a bond of $1,000 must be posted with the department of agriculture.

In the other class, dealers doing less than $200 gross business per year must pay an annual license fee of $5. No bond is required in this class, according to Hogan.

District Inspector Hogan said

every person or firm dealing in plants must obtain a license. He said a license must be obtained even though only one plant is offered for sale.

Gooding Player Guild Presents Broadway Play

GOODING, March 29—Members of the Gooding Players Guild drew the audience following presentation of "Deep Are the Roots," sponsored by the Gooding Business and Professional Men's Club. Much credit was due Mrs. Bert Bowler, director, who had witnessed a New York performance of the Broadway success of Arnold D'Amico and James Gow.

A second crowd witnessed the play. Mrs. Murva James Shaw, star of the show, was presented with huge bouquets of flowers and the director was called to the stage to be introduced and presented with numerous bouquets.

Appearing in the cast were Mrs. Shaw, Andrew James, Blythe Cline, Osa Sabido, Jr., Ruth Eiler, Parker, Eugene Hille, Josephine Vagner, Laura Poulsen, Adam Sorenson, K. Deane Butler and Eldrich Bowler. Jerry Hogan and Jean Dolle White were in charge of prop and scenery. Nancy Haddock and Marilyn Miles were prompters.

The BPPW club was in charge of seating, programs and tickets. Following the presentation of the production the cast was entertained at a buffet supper at the Methodist church, with BPPW as hostesses. Committee members making arrangements included Mrs. Jeanette Fancher, Mrs. Elizabeth Price, Mrs. Loretta Houtley, Mrs. Mabel Persinger, Edna Robinson, Mrs. Arlette Nelson and Mrs. Helen L. Smith.

Margaret Detweiler Wed In Easter Services Here

White, yellow and green, the hues of spring, were the color theme for the wedding on Easter Sunday of Margaret Detweiler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Detweiler, to Olof H. Jacobson, Jr., of the city.

The wedding was performed at 1:30 p. m. at St. Edward's Catholic church by the Rev. Mr. J. P. O'Neil.

A bank of white lilies and roses ornamented the altar and baskets of madragons and lilies all in white were placed in the sanctuary and flanking the entrance. Daffodils in the aisle and streamers marked the aisle used by the bride. Taper candles were placed in eight branched candelabra.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gown in white satin, styled with a high, stand-up collar. A seed-pearl motif trimmed the neck and wrists and the light, bodice of the gown fell from the long bodice to form a court train. Tiny tulle ruffles held the finger-tip veil to the laced pearl tulle.

The bride bouquet was a white orchid with yellow center, surrounded by lilies-of-the-valley and trailing satin ribbons tied with small cynosymbium orchids.

Mrs. Richard Coughlin, Grand Junction, Colo., the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Detweiler and Mrs. George Robinson, Denver, Colo., wore identical gowns of light apple-green tulle with wide bands of fabric. Their headpieces were hats of matching green tulle. Mrs. Coughlin carried a cascade bouquet of yellow daffodils and white lilies bordered with green. The bridesmaid's bouquet were similar of daffodils.

Small Sally Sieber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sieber, and Gregory Detweiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Detweiler were flower girls. Gregory carried a small basket of yellow daffodils, designed like those of the attendants with a yellow tulle train. Sally scattered rose petals from a yellow basket. Gregory was garbed in a white linen suit.

George Mallett, Jr., Denver, was the best man and usher was George Collier, Robert Detweiler, Richard Victor and James Campbell.

Schubert's "Ave Maria" was sung preceding the ceremony by M. J. Jensen accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Ostrom, who also played background music for the ceremony.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Olof Jacobson, Denver, wore a formal-length dress of dusty-pink crepe with a matching floral hat and accessories. Mrs. Detweiler was in a hazy blue with matching accessories. Both mothers had corsages of dark lavender orchids.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where a musical decoration of mixed flowers in Easter colors repeated the spring motif of the wedding.

The affair was with the bride's parents, Mrs. Howard Allen, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Owen Phillips, Mrs. Tom McDonald, Mrs. David Hilly, Mrs. Donald Zuk, Mrs. George Beven and Mrs. A. C. Victor.

The five-tiered wedding cake which centered the buffet table was surrounded with white lilies and smiles.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Dr. and Mrs. George Mallett, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, Katherine Puterbaugh and Eleanor Puterbaugh, Denver, and Dr. Carl W. Verheyen and daughter, Alicia, Longsight, Denver.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip to various western ski resorts. For traveling Mrs. Jacobson chose beige gabardine suit and brown leather shoes with a Linsington brown hat and alligator shoes and bag. Her corsage was an orchid.

The couple will make their home temporarily in Denver. The former Miss Detweiler graduated from Twin Falls high school with the class of 1942 and from the University of Colorado, Boulder, in 1946. She has been employed in the personnel department of the United States Rubber company in Denver.

Her husband attended the University of Colorado and will soon enter the University of California at Los Angeles to continue his study of dentistry. He served in the army and air corps for three and one-half years as bombardier and navigator of a B-29 in the Pacific theater.

Mrs. Jacobson was entertained before her wedding at a bridge party and miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Arthur Anderson and at a shower given by Mrs. Virgil McDevitt, Mrs. Ida Mae Pendrey and Mrs. Donald K. Zuk.

Burley Group Sets Program In Recreation

BURLEY, March 28.—Aiding for full cooperation of all residents of Burley and surrounding communities in putting over a youth welfare and recreation program, Ray Budge, chairman of the newly organized Burley Youth Welfare Council, revealed plans being made by the committee of the organization at a meeting last week.

The program planned by the council calls for work in helping unfortunate children, delinquent children, and improving health conditions as well as providing a well-rounded program of recreation, Budge said. Because of the many activities covered by the council, it will be necessary for the entire community to back the project, he added.

Committee listed

Committee appointments announced at the meeting are Mrs. C. F. Hanzel, & Robert Bjorkman, Mrs. James Keith, Mrs. Virginia Lindsay, Mrs. Ray Budge, Robert Fancher, Dick Maughan and Mrs. Don Gray, community and school health; Mrs. Leo Doty, Mrs. Mary Darrington, Ray Reed, E. May Livingston, Harvey Steel, Mrs. H. O. Jones, C. Robert and Mrs. J. W. Williams, dependent children; A. Edwin Larson, Jess Peterson, Sheriff Saul Clark, County Attorney Adonis Nielsen, Probate Judge Henry W. Tucker, Mrs. Elwood Allard and Lloyd C. Cox, delinquent children and court cooperation; Don Show, the Rev. Father Francis O'Churriel, Bernard Peterson, Dr. George Tomlin, F. Malory, Tom Chirack, Paul Zillner, Duane Jensen, Ray Wall and Karen Lewis, recreation; Lester McGowan, Vern Mitchell, Perry Stephenson, L. V. Morgan, Mrs. Norman Smith, George Eklund, Palmer J. Gatschorn and Truman Bradley, finance; and Earl Carlson and Mrs. May Robertson, guidance and education, and Mrs. Ernest Steelsmith and James Hammett, publicity and public relations.

Don Shaw, of the recreation committee, reported his group recommended the employment of a full-time recreation director during the summer months.

Inner-Aid Medicine Real Relief for Gas, Constipation

One man recently took INNER-AID three days and said afterward that he never would have believed his body contained so much waste substance. He says his stomach, intestines, bowels and whole system were so thoroughly cleansed that his constant headaches caused by an ever-severed pimply skin eruptions on his face dried up overnight, and even the rheumatic pains in his knees disappeared. At present he is an altogether different man, feeling fine in every way.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs; they cleanse bowels, clear the stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go to a doctor! Get INNER-AID. Sold by all drug stores.—Adv.

Paper Output Expenses Go Up Over Half

NEW YORK, March 28 (AP)—American newspaper publishers are paying about 50 per cent more to publish their newspapers today than in 1943, and costs are still rising. At the same time, their revenue from circulation is up about 50 per cent, and from circulation about 35 per cent.

The bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, estimates its member papers received $300,000,000 from national advertising in 1943, and $721,000,000 in local advertising.

Costs have skyrocketed, however, and newspaper and ink for an average of 50,000 circulation paper are estimated 90 per cent higher than three years ago.

Other raw materials have increased proportionately, says the magazine Editor and Publisher. The expense of operating composing rooms has increased about 60 per cent; photo-engraving departments, 60 per cent; press rooms, 40 per cent; stereotyping departments, 71 per cent; editorial, 38 per cent; advertising, 48 per cent, and circulation, 35 per cent, the magazine adds.

To meet this rising expense, about 500 newspapers increased circulation rates in the past year so that today practically 90 per cent of all dailies

John Holoyak, who was released from the chairmanship of the community and school health committee, reported that his committee would ask for the formation of a Burley medical association to assist with community health problems and the employment of a city physician. The council will help needy cases, supply immunization medicines, assist crippled children and mental cases.

Help Needy Children

Mrs. Lee Doty, of the dependent children committee, asked the council to assist financially in providing for clothing for destitute children. She also recommended an education course for mothers in nutrition.

Mrs. Mary Robertson reported the guidance and educational committee had made a study of the needs improvements in the school system, including better lighting of school rooms, arrangement of classes and improvement of buildings.

The council went on record as favoring the organizing of boys' and girls' clubs which would help build better citizenship. Plans are to make available to all children who want to belong to some group, an organization which would fill that need.
